

Zeitschrift der Deutschen Gesellschaft für Geowissenschaften (ZDGG)

Instruction to authors (last version: June-18-2005)

1. General

The Zeitschrift der Deutschen Gesellschaft für Geowissenschaften preferably publishes original papers in English and German language covering the entire field of geoscience (solid earth). Articles to be published in German language must include an English title, abstract, figure- table- and plate legends as well as keywords according to GeoRef Thesaurus. Articles in English should include the above mentioned paragraphs translated into German. In addition an abstract written in the mother tongue of the study area is welcome. The manuscript has to comply with the rules of Good Scientific Practice; see: http://www.dfg.de/aktuelles\_presse/reden\_stellungnahmen/download/self\_regulation\_98.pdf

All manuscripts are peer reviewed. All manuscripts must be final and typesetted preferably in MS Word. Electronic data and three printouts of text and figures must be submitted.

2. Copyright

Submission of a manuscript for publication in the Zeitschrift der Deutschen Gesellschaft für Geowissenschaften is considered binding assurance that this work has not been and will not be published elsewhere in this form and length.

With acceptance and publication of a manuscript the exclusive copyright for every language and country is transferred to the publishers. The copyright covers the exclusive rights to reproduce and distribute the article including reprints, microfilm or any other reproduction and translations.

3. Manuscript structure and layout

Papers must be set up according to the recommendations made by Horatschek & Schubert (1998): „Richtlinie für die Verfasser geowissenschaftlicher Veröffentlichungen“ (ISBN 3510-95820-9). Manuscripts that fail to meet the requirements will be rejected and returned to the authors.

4. Figures, plates and tables

All figures, plates and tables must be submitted on separate pages with only one item per page and, if ever possible as electronic files. The name of the author together with the illustration number must be written on the reverse side of each illustration page. For every illustration short and precise legends (headline/footnote) in German and English have to be included. The top of an illustration must be indicated.

Figures, plates and tables should have a line weight and lettering suitable for reduction to the type area of 17.5 x 23.5 cm or less. Figures and tables can also be scaled to fit one column (8.5 cm). The position of illustrations in the text should be indicated.

Pixel-based lineart figures must be supplied in tif or eps format at a resolution not less than 600 dpi.

Photographs should be sharp and of high contrast. Electronically submitted halftones and photographs must be provided at a minimum resolution of 300 dpi. Please be sure that in eps files all fonts are embedded.

5. Citations in the text

Literature citations within the text must be by name of author/s, (in capitals and small capitals, do not use full capitals), year, and if necessary place (page or figure number) in the cited reference. For two authors use the „&“ notation; for more than two authors quote the first author followed by the „et al.“ notation

Example: „It is well known (Miall 1996) that ...“

„A revision (Kunert & Wansa 1997: 24) shows ...“

„According to Eissmann et al. (1995: Abb. 3) the ...“

Multiple citations are separated by comma (Müller 2000, Meier 2001).

6. Citations in the reference list

List only and all cited references. References must be listed in alphabetical-chronological order. In difference to the recommendations made by Horatschek & Schubert (1998) references should be cited as follow:

7. Proofs

The first or corresponding author will receive proofs of the article.

8. Reprints

Authors will receive 25 free reprints and the .pdf-file of their article. Additional reprints may be ordered from the publishers against costs.

Please send manuscripts to:

Prof. Dr. Andreas Hoppe

- Editor-in-Chief, Zeitschrift der Deutschen Gesellschaft für Geowissenschaften -

c/o Institut für Angewandte Geowissenschaften der TUD

Schnittspahnstraße 9

D-64287 Darmstadt, Germany

(Fone +6151-162371, Fax +6151-166539, E-Mail: ahoppe@geo.tu-darmstadt.de)